

We are here for you!

The Covid-19 pandemic and the associated restrictions that we are all currently experiencing pose great challenges to each and every one of us, both in our work and in our private lives.

Nonetheless, it is very important to us to continue to provide you with first-class service. Our entire team is working continuously for you. Both our customer service and our sales representatives remain available to support you every day.

We have implemented numerous protective measures at all locations and in all areas at H.B. Fuller | KÖMMERLING. These include observing the regulations for hygienic measures and the recommended safety distance, disinfecting objects and working from home whenever possible. For us, the recommendations and guidelines of the WHO, and of national and local authorities are decisive for full compliance with all protective measures. We are implementing these consistently, because the safety and health of our employees, customers, business partners as well as risk groups in the population are our top priority.

Our production continues to run without restrictions for now. Our teams are following supply chain security very closely. We will keep you informed about any possible changes.

As we continue to adapt to this unprecedented situation, we would like to thank all our customers for their ongoing support.

We will keep you updated on a regular basis about the current situation at H.B. Fuller | KÖMMERLING. Please do not hesitate to contact us at any time with any questions or suggestions.

Thank you very much for the confidence you have placed in us.
